

NSBA LEGAL CLIPS

Your FREE School Law Resource

The National School Boards Association's Office of General Counsel and the NSBA Council of School Attorneys are offering Legal Clips via e-mail. This free e-newsletter service provides participants with weekly updates on important and interesting school law issues. Anyone may subscribe.

"I learned about Legal Clips during a session I attended at NSBA's annual conference. This one resource was worth the cost of the conference. It's great!"

Dr. Fran Karanovich,
Superintendent – Macomb, IL

Join the thousands of your colleagues who receive Legal Clips weekly (read more of what some of them have to say on the reverse side). You can self-subscribe in a few seconds at www.nsba.org/legalclips. Simply follow the directions on the webpage under "Subscribe." NSBA is a spam-free zone. Your e-mail address will not be used for any purpose other than the delivery of Legal Clips.

Legal Clips subscribers also receive access to our online Archives. You can view any past issue of Legal Clips in the Archives by simply logging in with your e-mail address. These Archives are also fully searchable. Subscribers also have the ability to update their own e-mail addresses or unsubscribe by logging in at the Legal Clips website: www.nsba.org/legalclips.

"I can't say enough about this service..."

Senior legal editor, For-profit newsletter company—Malvern, PA

"I received the first 'clips' yesterday and found it informative and easy to use. The links are terrific and help to provide in-depth background."

School board member—Bethel, CT

"Your Legal Clips updates are always fantastic and make me feel like I am a little more in touch with the rest of the education world—not just what is going on in Southern California. Your team puts together a high quality, informative document."

Attorney—Tustin, CA

"As a school board member I find the information to be very informative and helpful, especially on the constantly changing NCLB."

School board member—Dexter, MI

"I just wanted to let you know how much I enjoy reading the Legal Clips. Not having a legal background myself, your synopses of the rulings are easy to read and very interesting."

School board member—Oklahoma City, OK

"The information in Legal Clips is a great supplement to what I cover in class and will hopefully be something they continue to follow after the semester is finished."

Attorney and university school law instructor—Missoula, MT

"At 5:30 a.m. in my home library on a Saturday..., I can read in a concise format what is happening in K-12 education across the nation with links to more in-depth information. This enables me as a professional to remain current and informed. Thus I am better able to serve my district and to contribute to the education bar."

Attorney—Conyers, GA

"This go-round, there were no fewer than 3 articles about which I took further action!"

Attorney, Nonprofit legal advocacy organization—Newark, NJ

"[I]ncredibly informative, practical, and extremely useful."

Family court judge and professor of education law—Toronto, Canada

"My Ed Law class... found the service to be great, informative, and a wonderful supplement to their course work! ...

Most of them indicated that they wanted to continue receiving the service."

Professor—Moorhead, MN

"I have found the Legal Clips to be very helpful... when teaching about schools and law enforcement."

Instructor, FBI Academy—Quantico, VA

"I am beginning my last year as a school board member, and I'm starting to think about what I'll miss. The 'Legal Clips' is one of the things. It seems like I can still be a subscriber, even if I am no longer a board member. That's great!"

School board member—Middleton, WI

"Easy to read, precise, brief, and important items covered... what more could you ask?"

Superintendent—Cambridge, MA
