Vetted Solutions is a proud member of:
The National School Boards Association (NSBA), the premier advocate for public education and a federation of 49 state school boards associations and the territory of the Virgin Islands, has initiated a national search for an Executive Director to replace its retiring leader. NSBA works with and through its member state associations to advocate for public education on behalf of more than 90,000 local school board members and almost 50 million public school children. NSBA is a private, non-profit, and non-partisan organization. NSBA advocates for equity and excellence in public education through local school board governance. Based in Alexandria, VA, NSBA has an $18 million budget and 65 staff.

The successful candidate will have a passion for equity and excellence in public education and its vital role in preparing our nation's youth for the future. NSBA programs, products, and services include training, professional development, and award programs. Serving as the members’ “Washington, D.C. Office,” federal advocacy, public policy, and legal advocacy programs and resources are highly-valued.

NSBA’s focus is on recruiting an accomplished individual with experience as an Executive Director/CEO or equivalent experience, who will build on its strong federal and legal advocacy, reputation, and credible voice; work with and through its state associations (its members); and build a relevant, viable, and sustainable mission-focused organization. Candidates may come from a variety of backgrounds with a preference for those who have led organizational transformation.

Key Responsibilities

- Displays an inspirational and courageous approach to managing an organization.
- Exhibits authentic, candid, and transparent communications skills.
- Demonstrates strong relationship-building skills.
- Engages and balances various stakeholders’ needs in the role of NSBA change agent.
II. Organization Review

Mission

Working with and through our State Associations, NSBA Advocates for Equity and Excellence in Public Education through school board leadership.

School Board Vision

NSBA’s School Board Vision for Public Education is their unified framework based on its mission. As public school advocates, NSBA must be unified in its messaging and proactive in its delivery.

Advocacy

In the legislative, legal and public arenas, NSBA shapes federal education policy, raises public awareness of critical issues such as school safety and champions the mission of public education to prepare our nation’s youth for the future. NSBA draws national attention to important issues by advocating on Capitol Hill, in state and federal courts and in the media for the urgent need of our students and their public schools. Member and public resources include ASBJ, ASBJ Brief, and Federal Insider Podcasts.

Services

NSBA develops and offers unparalleled programs and services to enable its members to be their most impactful. From executive development to resource provider, NSBA creates opportunities to connect, share and learn from peers and from the best thinkers, strategists and managers.

NSBA’s Councils offer unique opportunities for school board members and school leaders to get involved, strengthen their advocacy skills and be part of a dynamic collaboration. The Councils include: COSA (Council of School Attorneys); CUBE (Council of Urban Boards of Education); AIAN (American Indians/Alaska Native Council of School Board Members); NBC (National Black Council of School Board Members); and NHC (National Hispanic Council of School Board Members).

National Connection (NatCon) is the leading national executive information and networking program for school board leaders and senior school district staff. Currently more than 15,000 public education leaders across 1,300 districts are a part of National Connection.

The National Affiliation of Superintendent Searchers (NASS), the most experienced network of search professionals in the country; BuyBoard, a national purchasing cooperative that streamlines the buying process for schools; and the School Rx Cooperative, a National Pharmacy Benefit Management Program, are all designed to offer school districts and education professionals time and cost savings.
